

Historical Banking Quotes

Robert Anderson, Treasury Secretary under Eisenhower

'When a bank makes a loan, it simply adds to the borrower's deposit account in the bank by the amount of the loan. The money is not taken from anyone else's deposits; it was not previously paid in to the bank by anyone. It's new money, created by the bank for the use of the borrower'.

The Director of the Bank of England,
Sir Josiah Stamp, 1927.

'The modern banking system manufactures money out of nothing. The process is perhaps the most astonishing piece of sleight of hand that was ever invented... Bankers own the earth. Take it away from them but leave them the power to create money, and, with a stroke of a pen, they will create enough money to buy it back again...but if you want to continue to be the slaves of the bankers and pay the cost of your own slavery, then let bankers continue to create money and control credit'.

Professor Irving Fisher, Yale University, in his book '100% Money'.

'If two parties, instead of being a bank and an individual, were an individual and an individual, they could not inflate the circulating medium by a loan transaction, for the simple reason that the lender could not lend what he didn't have, as banks can do. Only commercial banks and trust companies can lend money that they manufacture by lending it'.

The Bank of England Quarterly Bulletin, 2014.

'Whenever a bank makes a loan, it simultaneously creates a matching deposit in the borrower's bank account, thereby creating new money'.

Ralph Hawtry, former Secretary of the Treasury.

'Banks lend by creating credit. They create the means of payment out of nothing'.

James Madison,
fourth president of the United States.

'History records that the Money Changers have used every form of abuse, intrigue, deceit and violent means possible to maintain their control over governments by controlling money and its issuance'.

Mackenzie King,
Canadian Prime Minister 1935-1948.

'Once a nation parts with the control of its currency and credit, it matters not who makes the nation's laws. ... Until the control of the issue of currency and credit is restored to government and recognized as its most sacred responsibility, all talk of the sovereignty of parliament and of democracy is idle and futile'.

US President John Adams.

'There are two ways to conquer and enslave a nation. One is by the sword. The other is by debt'.

Henry Ford

'It is well enough that people of the nation do not understand our banking and monetary system, for if they did, I believe there would be a revolution before tomorrow morning'.

The creation of the monetary supply as debts bearing compound interest fulfills one of the definitions for Satanism!

Perhaps it is time then for you to investigate your nation's monetary supply?

Perhaps it is time for you to awaken from the financial curse of usury, the plague which has destroyed civilisations and the heart of humanity!
